

An Interview with Thetis

Robby Renz ABEYSINGHE

October 22, 2018

Professor: Dr. Conor Whately

Course Name: Classical Mythology

Course Number: CLAS-2701-01

Robby: Please state your name and a brief introduction about yourself for the record.

Thetis: My Name is Thetis, and I am a sea nymph.

Robby: Why did you decide to marry Palatos or whatever his name was?

Thetis: There was a prophecy that I would give birth to a son with the power to overthrow the sky himself, or something along those lines.

Robby: Okay, now this is really interesting. What do you think Goddess?

Thetis: I was heart-broken to think that Achilles, my dear son, is going back to fight because of vengeance. I had a dream that he will die in the war, so I am very concerned Slatkin.

Works Cited

Slatkin, Laura M. "The Wrath of Thetis". Transactions of the American Philological Association (1974-) 116 (1986): 1–24. Web.